Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Fort Wayne

Sacred Seekers

Gatherings for Reflection & Sharing

Sacred Seekers is about the art of listening.

These small groups of 6-10 adults will gather monthly for conversation, for exploration of topics pertinent to our lives as Unitarian Universalist, for sharing, and for listening.

Sacred Seekers are and are not certain things. They are not:

- Adult education classes
- Therapeutic support groups
- Social circles

Sacred Seekers are an opportunity to connect more deeply with:

- Each other
- Our own beliefs and questions
- Our shared tradition

by meeting with intention over several weeks together.

We hope that by gathering in these small groups we will be able to go deeper into the topics chosen to discuss, into our own hearts, into our connections within this congregation, and even into our service to the world. We hope these simple gatherings offer us a way to stay connected even as our congregation grows, a way to listen even as we share ourselves, a way to grow, not in numbers, but in love and deeper meaning.

How does it work?

Registration is ongoing through Sunday, September 17 and gatherings will begin in October. Groups will be sorted according to everyone's best meeting time and the facilitator will call or email you to welcome you to the first gathering. Each Sacred Seeker gathering is convened by a trained facilitator and follows a two-hour format.

Attendance

In order to build trust and kinship within each group, and to help the conversations deepen over time, please make every effort to attend all sessions. If you do need to miss a session, please let the facilitator of your group know.
