

6.7 Nominating Committee

The Nominating Committee shall consist of three members: one appointed by the Board of Trustees for a one-year term and two elected at Congregational Election Meetings for two-year terms, beginning in alternate years.

The Board of Trustees shall appoint one Voting Member to serve a one -year term no later than April 30.

Any Voting Member appointed to fill an unexpired term shall hold office until the next Congregational Election Meeting; that member may then be elected to the remaining portion of the unexpired term as long as the Voting Member is eligible per 6.2 Terms and 6.4 Reelection.

Members of the Nominating Committee are elected per 6.1 Election. Vacancies are filled per 6.5 Vacancies.

Each regularly elected member of the Nominating Committee shall take office on January 1 following their election and serve until December 31st of the year that their term expires.

Reelection is per 6.4 Reelection

~~No later than May 31, the President of the Congregation shall convene a meeting of the Committee. The President shall provide the Committee with a copy of the Bylaws, inform the Committee of the vacancies to be filled, and preside over the election by the Committee of its chairperson. The President will then withdraw.~~

No later than February 28th, the President of the congregation shall provide the Nominating Committee access to a copy of the Bylaws and inform them of the vacancies to be filled. The committee will select a chairperson and determine their own meeting and communication needs.

The Committee shall prepare a slate from among Voting Members, which shall not include members of the Nominating Committee, as nominees to each elected position, at least 25-days before the Congregational Election Meeting.

Additional nominations may be made from the floor.

The Nominating Committee shall also recommend committee chairpersons and other appointed positions as directed by the Board, for Board approval.